ALL: Good morning.

TD: Couple things, the big one is next Thursday the 26th of September. We are having another business summit. It will be on mental health and wellness in the workplace, there is a flyer in your packet today. We have a great panel with Annmarie Wachamontes, Diana Lillo and Rob Labiento who is with the Town of Babylon. Dr. Wachamontes was on our podcast a couple months ago which brought this idea to the forefront, we went over tools that are available to businesses, that not only help them recognize mental health and issues that are going on in the workplace but also a solution to get better at recognizing. We put this panel together, we have a program right here in the Town of Babylon that the supervisor had started and Joe Ninomiya here is also a part of that program. This is a great opportunity for networking and businesses, that will bring them together and I encourage you all to reach out to your networks, if you can try and make it, so it's next Thursday from 8:30 to 10:30 at Farmingdale Firehouse, East Farmingdale Firehouse, they have been very gracious by allowing us to hold these events there and again, this is an opportunity to bring businesses together evaluated by the IDA and gives us an opportunity to develop relationships with businesses. If you can please put that out there, it would be great to see you out there as well. Breakfast will be provided. With that, I just want to say we do have a very long pipeline with the businesses trying to get year end projects through and we are working every day, it is our main focus right now and also you will be receiving by the end of this week the schedule I was telling you about, we have put together for 2025. That is about all I have. Thank you!

All: Thank you.

TG: That being said is there any new/old business, no old/new business. Any new Business?

Laughter

TG: Any new business?

RD: No old or new.

TG: I'll take a motion to close.

WC: Motion.

TG: Second?

PL: I'll second the motion.

TG: All in favor?

ALL: Aye.

TG: Opposed? The ayes have it. Thank you.
