ALL: Good morning, Tom.

TD: I'd just first want to welcome Ubaid. Ubaid's here from Ujima and he's been working with our team and interns and he's been doing a great job, so I just want to welcome him. We also want to commend the entire staff, we were able to raise about seven thousand for the Warrior Project again for this year, and again that's a thank you to the business community, the Babylon business community, the IDA clients, the civic groups and everyone that has reached out to helps support that. We are going to be doing something that will be posted up on our website, congratulating and thanking all those who have contributed. Other than that, I hope you all are having a great summer. Things continue to move along here as you can see, and if you have any questions please reach out to me. So, with that, back to you Tom, thank you.

TG: Thank you, Tom. At this time, is there any Old Business?
